EDITORIAL

Forty years ago in November, the Bharat Scouts and Guides, a single Association for the country to look after the Movement was born. It is said that forty years is a generation. But is there a "Generation Gap" in the Movement? Men and women of the last generation, old and middle-aged are working with boys and girls of this generation born in the last couple of decades of the 20th Century. The cherished values of yester years are being passed on to be imbibed. We are on the threshhold of the 21st Century. By the turn of the century, the Bharat Scouts and Guides would be fifty.

In 1956 when the Vishal Karnataka came into being, there was a real merger of Scout Associations and a merger of Guides in the State. Scouts and Guides of the Princely State of Mysore, Scouts and Guides of the Nizam's State, Scouts and Guides of Madras Presidency, Scouts and Guides from Bombay Presidency came under the blue banner of the Bharat Scouts and Guides.

The fortieth anniversary of the Bharat Scouts and Guides happily coincides with the Platinum Jubilee of Scouting for Indian Boys which began with its leader Dr. Annie Besant. With the introduction of the new programme for Boys and Girls in 1986, Scouting and Guiding has been indigenised, Indian in all its aspects, affording opportunities to its members to recognise and appreciate the mosaic of Indian culture and work ceaselessly to consolidate and conserve it.

November 1st to 7th is as you are aware is the Scout/Guide week. We expect reports from Districts on the observance of the Scout/Guide week. If any District has not thought of it, why not plan a Programme now to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of the Bharat Scouts and Guides?

A Scout wants to be Happy; but he will not be happy till he makes others happy too.

Address by Sri V. P. Deenadayalu Naidu, Chief Commissioner (S) (India) Bharat Scouts and Guides at the Rastrapathi Bhavan, New Delhi on the occasion of the President's Scouts/Guides Rally on 5-11-1990.

Revered President, Rastrapathiji, esteemed President of Bharat Scouts and Guides, Sri Chavan, Dr. Shankar Dayal Sharma, Vice-President of India, Sri Rameshwar Thakurji distinguished Delegates to the Asia Pacific Region for Seminar and Conference.

It is with a profound sense of joy and gratitude, after one more year, we meet you to express and re-assert how grateful we are at your gracious continued acceptance to be our Patron-in-Chief. It is my privilege to represent our National Commissioner, Sardar Lakshmansinghji, who due to his indisposition is not able to participate in this Rally.

We are particularly conscious of your close care and affection you have bestowed on us, to realise and be more responsive and responsible to the better development of personality of our growing Scouting and Guiding and to the community at large.

With humble beginning, the Youth and Adults in the course of past decade, have attained primacy, in global activities and participation it all spheres in the International, national and local levels.

Two new camp sites, one at Delhi and another at Haryana have been developed to cater to the modern needs with up-to-date, well-equipped amenities. Camping and Training receive singularly high degree of efficiency. Thanks to the unstinted efforts of the National Commissioner, Officers and staff of the organisation. Our numerical turnover today is five times to what it was 5 years ago.

Proficiency and skills are-well-writ and the Movement is shaping in a dynamic manner in growth and technique by the benign assistance and encouragement from our Central Government as well as other State Governments. However effective streaming of almost every World Conference, World Jamborees and the Round Table in Geneva is a remarkable and appreciable performance which has attracted world-wide admiration.

We are committed as an organisation, blended with service from all communities, regions, religious faiths and multi-languages without any shade of distinction or discrimination ONENESS, UNITY AND EQUALITY, OUR CORDIAL THEME. We shall re-dedicate to continuous service with greater zeal and gusto, seriousness and judicious will, enshrining richness in co-ordination and bountiful co-operation, to make our Nation strong.

We have amidst us, our sisters, the Guide Wing, who are equally competent to join in all our activities, and have added, colour, strength, vitality and vigour to themselves, community and the Movement.

We pride ourselves for winning several Awards and Merit Certificates from abroad of International repute for integration, environmental strategy and Housing.

We are representing in the World Bureau of Training and the Asia Pacific Region Committee which I believe is no small honour.

We are now 21 lakhs strong, large uniformed voluntary force in the world. We have recently revised the Boy Programme and Leader Training techniques making more community Development-oriented. The National level services that we have taken up in Leprosy Control, Sanitation Promotion, Tree Plantation, Adult Literacy, Environmental Strategy and Housing are all making the presence of Scouts and Guides felt in their communities.

You will be interested to know revered Rashtrapathiji that an International Relief Organisation called AHM of Munich have recognised our work in Leprosy Control. They came all the way to India, gathered all information and prepared a beautiful exhibition and air lifted to Paris for showing it and showed the same in the World Scout Conference recently held in Paris. Their attempt is to enthuse the Scouts and Guides of all the countries in the World where Leprosy is prevalent with the Indian example.

As a special activity of our Sanitation Promotion, we have taken up School Sanitation. Last year over 4000 Educational Institutions were benefitted by the services of Scouts and Guides.

We have taken up Operation Creation, a new idea of National Integration. This was to encourage young people to think of an ideal society, of their dreams, where caste, religion, moneyedness and other limitations will not be considered.

Our march in tune with the International bodies marks the modern era of our Movement which projects new spheres of exploration, like a) " Scout Parliamentary Union " and closer combine with the (b) WORLD ASSOCIATION OF GIRL GUIDES and (c) International Fellowship of Former Scouts. We shall continuously persevere and set our trends for relevant and higher goals and targets for greater happiness for our beneficiaries and country as a whole, Your generous patronage is not only result-oriented but also praiseworthy. What is more is your blessings to the younger generation, sparks glorious inspiration to make them world citizens and country's true and real leaders. All this augurs well and promises well for our Nation's future. We will cherish and remember for ever this occasion as a Golden Leaf in the annals of our life and in the progress of our Movement.

We are happy to have with us with the help of the Department of Youth Affairs and Sports about 500 Scouts and Guides volunteers who are helping the organisation at various levels. This is a new para professional force that has added to our strength.

With these words, I have the honour to request you to kindly distribute awards to some of our supporters and members whose meritorious services have immensely helped us and also the certificates to the representatives of about 4000 Scouts, Guides, Rovers and Rangers who have worked for the entire year to be qualified for this coveted Award.

ನಮ್ಮ ರಾಷ್ಟ್ರವು ಇಂದು ಅತ್ಯಂತ ಕಷ್ಟ ಪರಿಸ್ಥಿತಿಯನ್ನು ಎದುರಿಸುತ್ತಿದೆ. ಯಾವ ದೇಶ ತನ್ನ ಸರ್ವ ಧರ್ಮ ಸಮನ್ವಯಕ್ಕೆ ಹೆಮ್ಮೆಪಡುತ್ತದೆಯೋ ಅದು ಈಗ ಅಪಾಯಕಾರಿ ಸ್ಥಿತಿಯಲ್ಲಿದೆ. ಇದೆಲ್ಲ ನಡೆಯುತ್ತಿರುವುದು ಧರ್ಮದ ಹೆಸರಿನಲ್ಲಿ, ಹೌದು. ಇದು ನಿಜಕ್ಕೂ ಅತ್ಯಂತ ದೊಡ್ಡ ಸವಾಲಾಗಿದೆ.

ಮತೀಯ ಸೌಹಾರ್ದತೆ ಹಾಗೂ ಧಾರ್ಮಿಕ ಸಹಬಾಳ್ವೆಗೆ ಕರ್ನಾಟಕ ರಾಜ್ಯ ಹೆಸರಾಗಿದೆ. ಇಲ್ಲಿ ಎಲ್ಲ ಜಾತಿ, ಮತ ಹಾಗೂ ಧರ್ಮದ ಜನರು ಶಾಂತಿಯಿಂದ ಒಟ್ಟಿಗೆ ಸ್ನೇಹಿತರಂತೆ ಬಾಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದು, ರಾಜ್ಯದ ದೇಶದ ಪ್ರಗತಿಗೆ ಕೊಡುಗೆ ನೀಡಿದ್ದಾರೆ.

ಕೆಲವೊಂದು ಮತೀಯ ಗಲಭೆಗಳು ದೇಶದ ಜನರ ನಡುವೆ ಬಾಂಧವ್ಯ ಹಾಗೂ ಪ್ರೀತಿ, ವಿಶ್ವಾಸಗಳನ್ನು ಹಾಳು ಮಾಡಬೇಕೆ ? ಧರ್ಮದ ಬೇಧ ಭಾವಗಳು ಜನರ ನಡುವೆ ಅಡ್ಡಗೋಡೆಯಾಗಬೇಕೆ ? ಮತೀಯ ಗಲಭೆಗಳು ನಮ್ಮ ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಹಾಗೂ ದೇಶದ ಪ್ರಗತಿಗೆ ಅಡ್ಡಿ ಉಂಟು ಮಾಡಲು ಅವಕಾಶವೀಯಬೇಕೆ ? ಈ ರಾಜ್ಯೋತ್ಸವದ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ ಕರ್ನಾಟಕದ ಜನತೆಗೆ ವಿನಂತಿಸುವುದೇನೆಂದರೆ ಹಿಂಸಾಚಾರ ಹಾಗೂ ದ್ವೇಷವನ್ನು ಹತ್ತಿಕ್ಕಿ ನಾವೆಲ್ಲರೂ ಒಮ್ಮತದಿಂದ ಬಾಳೋಣ. ಜಾತಿ ಹಾಗೂ ಮತೀಯ ಬೇಧಗಳು ನಮ್ಮನ್ನು ಅಗಲಿಸದಿರಲಿ. ನಾವೆಲ್ಲರೂ ಒಂದೇ ಎಂಬ ಸಿದ್ಧಾಂತ ಗೆಲ್ಲಲಿ. ನಮ್ಮ ಚೈತನ್ಯವು ಸದೃಢ ಹಾಗೂ ಜಾತ್ಯಾತೀತ ರಾಜ್ಯ ನಿರ್ಮಾಣಕ್ಕೆ ಸಹಕಾರಿಯಾಗಲಿ. ಮತೀಯ ಸೌಹಾರ್ದತೆ ಹಾಗೂ ಶಾಂತಿ ಕಾಪಾಡುವಲ್ಲಿ ನಮ್ಮ ರಾಜ್ಯ ಮೇಲ್ಪಂಕ್ತಿಯಾಗಲಿ. ಎಲ್ಲರೂ ಹೆಮ್ಮೆ ಪಡುವಂತಹ ರಾಜ್ಯವಾಗಿರಲಿ. ಶಾಂತಿಗೆ ಸದಾವಕಾಶವನ್ನು ನೀಡೋಣ.

COMMUNICATION

By Sri. A. P. Nagesha Rao, State Secretary

FOR UNIT LEADERS & LEADERS OF ADULTS

Communication is an Art and also a Science with which an individual or an organisation can achieve the objectives and goals.

Communication is defined as :

— An exchange of facts, ideas, opinions or emotions by two or more persons.

— An interaction with words, letters, symbols and messages.

Effective Communication

Communication is the transfer of information, ideas and messages from one person to another in such a way that the receiver understands the intended information, ideas, messages, facts, thoughts of the sender.

It is always a two-way process-one to one, one to group etc., No communication in the real sense takes place unless what has been communicated is clearly understood as intended by the Sender.

Effective—Communication

There are seven principles which contribute for enhancing effectiveness of a communication-called "Seven C's"—Completeness, conciseness, consideration, concreteness, clarity, courtesy and correctness.

1. Completeness :

A communictation is complete only when it contains all facts the receiver needs to know and required for intended response.

In order to achieve completeness in a communication, the following important guidelines need to be adhered to :

a) Answering all questions asked.

b) Giving something extra, if necessary to substantiate.

c) Check for the five w's-who, what, where, when and why and any other essentials such as How.

2. Conciseness :

Conciseness-brevity in correspondence is the most important factor. This is an act of conveying an information in the fewest possible words without sacrificing completeness and courtesy.

A few types in this regard are :

—Avoid stereo-typed expressions and unnecessary repetitions.

—Include only relevant facts with courtesy.

—Brevity with courtesy.

3. Consideration

Consideration means preparing a communication keeping in mind the recipient and putting one self in his or her place. That is to visualise the reactions to the message on the recipient taking into account his problems, emotions and circumstances he is placed in to be more precise, thinking from the other man's point of view, his feelings and emotions, which is called as empathy, the human trends and understanding of human nature.

i) Focus on 'You' instead of 'I' and 'We'.

Readers and listeners are more concerned about themselves and get more interested when it is focussed on them. Instead of 'I' and 'We' attitude, should think of 'You' attitude while communicating, Eg :

'I' or 'We' attitude	'You' attitude
I want to send my best wishes greetings to you for having secured I Rank in your............	Congratulations to you on your..........................

ii) Communication should show the interest on reader or the Listener.

iii) One more way of showing consideration for your reader or listener is showing positive attitude rather than the negative. You should stress on what can be done instead of what cannot be done, while the stress should be on avoiding negative.

Note : It is better to inform the recipient why or How

For Example :

Negative-unpleasant	Positive-pleasant
As per rules you are not eligible to participate in..........................	As per rules the candidates who have completed........course are permitted to participate in........ If you have completed....course please send a copy of the Certificate for our consideration

Even in instances where one has to touch upon the deficiencies or highlighting on tasks not completed, it is always better to cover the positive aspects of the performance in the first paragraph instead of straight away commencing the message on a negative note. This will create a feeling in the mind of a recipient that his positive performance has been recognised, and therefore he may not get offended with the improvements expected from him.

iv) Integrity

To be truly considerate, one has to apply integrity-high moral standard, personal, honour, truthfulness, sincerity-in his communication, one's ethical standards naturally reflect on the organisation he or she represents. Sincerity, honesty and trust are the basic values which build a climate for harmonious communication, be it inter-personal or organisational communications.

My idea in making Scouting for Boys informal is to discourage this infernal creeping in everywhere of formality and red tape. We want elasticity and not hard and fast rules, nor even the semblance of them. And wherever, I go, I get evidence that our success with Scoutmasters is largely due to our abstention from red tape.

FROM OUR DOCUMENTATION

B-P was very keen on getting boys accustomed to night conditions. Hence the night picket, when B-P himself might try to get into the camp from outside the boundaries. One day he told the boys that he was going to "invade" the island and they were to stop him. By this time they had learnt a thing or two, so they posted a Scout to keep an eye on his movement and send signals to the others as B-P crawled through the undergrowth. As he passed under a big tree, a command "Halt" came from above and there was Donald B-P who thus had the distinction of capturing his uncle. B-P used this incident as a good example of the wisdom of looking up as well as around.

There were various competitions, some between the Patrols and some for an individual prize. Thus a prize was given for the best collection of leaves of trees with their names. Another was given for observation tests, this was won by H. Emley. Trail following was done by patrols as well as individually ; trails were had in various ways-the tracking-irons have already been mentioned-but some were laid with bits of coloured rag on branches, and by Scout signs. Man ydifferent practices and competitions in observation were carried out, such as finding messages hidden in trees. Indeed B-P seems to have put most stress in the training on observation, tracking, stalking and similar forms of Scouting.

One observation game played as 'Old Sporty Face' Here is B-P's description :

"Prepare squares of cardboard divided into about a dozen or more small squares. Each Scout should take one, and should have a pencil and go off a few hundred yards.

"The Leader then takes a large sheet of cardboard, with the same number of squares ruled on it of about three inch sides. The leaders has a number of black paper discs, half an inch in diameter, and pins ready, and sticks about half a dozen on to his card, dotted about where he likes. He holds up his card so that it can be seen by the Scouts. They then gradually approach, and as they get within sight they mark their cards with the same pattern of spots. The one who does so at the further distance from the leader wins.

"Give five points for every spot correctly shown, deduct one point for every two inches nearer than the farthest man".

On one whole day each patrol went off on its own with uncooked rations, and laid to look after itself, knowing that, at sometime during the expedition, they would come under B-P's observations. They had previously had practice in making fire and in making dampers. For this last job they had been taught to mix the dough on the insides of their jackets. This evidently appealed to them, for one of the survivors recalled that on his return home he started to do this, but had to stop owing to his mother's strong and understandable objection !

It has been said that B-P did not keep a detailed diary of the camp, but in Part VI of the fortnightly issue of Scouting for boys he gave a summary of a report on the camp he drew up. This passage was later taken out of the book and as it contains one or two points not so far mentioned it is here reprinted.

"The troop of boys was divided up into "Patrols" of five, the senior boy in each being Patrol Leader. The organisation was the secret of our success. His Patrol leader was given full responsibility for the behaviour of his Patrol at all times, in camp and in the field, The Patrol was the unit for work or play, and each Patrol was camped in a separate spot. The boys were put "on their honour" to carry our orders. Responsibility and competitive rivarly were thus at once established, and a good standard of development was ensured throughout the troop from day to day. The Troop was trained progressively in the objects of Scouting. Every night one Patrol went on duty as night picket-that is, draw rations of flour, meat, vegetables, tea etc., went out to some indicated spot to bivouac for the night. Each boy had his greatcoat and blankets, cooking-pot and matches. On arrival at the spot, fires were lit and suppers cooked, after which sentries were posted and bivouac formed. The picket was scouted by Patrol leader of other Patrol myself' at some time before eleven p.m. after which the sentries were withdrawn and picket settled down for the night.
